Section, act May 14, 1930, ch. 275, §1, 46 Stat. 327, related to establishment and purpose of a national hydraulic laboratory and studies of Federal and State projects related thereto.

§ 282a. Assessment of emerging technologies requiring research in metrology

The Board of Assessment of the National Institute of Standards and Technology shall include, as part of its annual review, an assessment of emerging technologies which are expected to require research in metrology to keep the Institute abreast of its mission, including process and quality control, engineering databases, advanced materials, electronics and fiber optics, bioprocess engineering, and advanced computing concepts. Such review shall include estimates of the cost of the required effort, required staffing levels, appropriate interaction with industry, including technology transfer, and the period over which the research will be required.

CHAPTER 7A—STANDARD REFERENCE DATA PROGRAM

Sec.	Congressional declaration of policy.
290.	Definitions.
290a.	Collection, compilation, critical evaluation, publication and dissemination of standard reference data.
290b.	Standards, criteria, and procedures for preparation and publication of standard reference data; publication in Federal Register.
290c.	Sale of standard reference data; cost recovery; proceeds subject to National Institute of Standards and Technology.
290d.	United States copyright and renewal rights.
290e.	Authorization of appropriations.
290f.

§ 290. Congressional declaration of policy

The Congress hereby finds and declares that reliable standardized scientific and technical reference data are of vital importance to the progress of the Nation’s science and technology. It is therefore the policy of the Congress to make critically evaluated reference data readily available to scientists, engineers, and the general public. It is the purpose of this chapter to strengthen and enhance this policy.

SHORT TITLE

Pub. L. 90-396, §8, July 11, 1968, 82 Stat. 340, provided that: “This Act [enacting this chapter] may be cited as the ‘Standard Reference Data Act.’”

§ 290a. Definitions

For the purposes of this chapter:

(1) Standard reference data

The term “standard reference data” means data that is—

- (A) either—
 - (i) quantitative information related to a measurable physical, or chemical, or biological property of a substance or system of substances of known composition and structure;
 - (ii) measurable characteristics of a physical artifact or artifacts;
 - (iii) engineering properties or performance characteristics of a system; or
 - (iv) 1 or more digital data objects that serve—

(I) to calibrate or characterize the performance of a detection or measurement system; or

(II) to interpolate or extrapolate, or both, data described in subparagraph (A) through (C);¹ and

(B) that is critically evaluated as to its reliability under section 290b of this title.

(2) Secretary

The term “Secretary” means the Secretary of Commerce.
