

that violates any other customs law of the United States shall be subject to any applicable civil and criminal penalty, including seizure and forfeiture, that may be imposed under such custom law or title 18, with respect to the importation of softwood lumber and softwood lumber products described in section 1683b(a) of this title.

(d) Factors to consider in assessing penalties

In determining the amount of civil penalties to be assessed under this section, consideration shall be given to any history of prior violations of this subtitle by the person, the ability of the person to pay the penalty, the seriousness of the violation, and such other matters as fairness may require.

(e) Notice

No penalty may be assessed under this section against a person for violating a provision of this subtitle unless the person is given notice and opportunity to make statements, both oral and written, with respect to such violation.

(f) Exception

Notwithstanding any other provision of this subtitle, and without limitation, an importer shall not be found to have violated subsection¹ 1683a(c) of this title if—

- (1) the importer made an appropriate inquiry in accordance with section 1683a(c)(1) of this title with respect to the declaration;
- (2) the importer produces records maintained pursuant to section 1683e(b) of this title that substantiate the declaration; and
- (3) there is not substantial evidence indicating that the importer knew that the fact to which the importer made the declaration was false.
