

(C) any proposed action that the Trade Representative intends to raise during the meeting; and

(D) the views of the advisory committees established under section 2155 of this title regarding the reasons described in subparagraph (A) and any proposed action under subparagraph (C).

(2) Additional information

The Trade Representative shall also provide detailed and timely information in response to any questions posed by the appropriate congressional committees with respect to any meeting described in paragraph (1), including by submitting to those committees copies of any proposed text that the Trade Representative plans to submit to the other parties to the meeting.

(d) Congressional engagement after joint review

(1) In general

Not later than 20 days after the USMCA countries have met for a joint review, the Trade Representative shall brief the appropriate congressional committees regarding the positions expressed by the countries during the joint review and what, if any, actions were agreed to by the countries.

(2) Continued engagement

After a joint review, the Trade Representative shall keep the appropriate congressional committees timely apprised of any developments arising out of or related to the review.

(e) Definitions

In this section:

(1) Joint review

The term “joint review” means a review conducted under the process provided for in article 34.7 of the USMCA relating to extension of the term of the USMCA.

(2) USMCA country

The term “USMCA country” has the meaning given that term in section 4531(a) of this title.

(Pub. L. 116–113, title VI, § 611, Jan. 29, 2020, 134 Stat. 79.)

DELEGATION OF FUNCTIONS

Proc. No. 10053, par. (14), June 29, 2020, 85 F.R. 39826, authorized the United States Trade Representative to exercise the function assigned to the President under subsec. (a) of this section to consult with the appropriate congressional committees and stakeholders regarding joint reviews under article 34.7 of the USMCA.

PART B—TERMINATION OF USMCA

§ 4621. Termination of USMCA

(a) Termination of USMCA country status

During any period in which a country ceases to be a USMCA country, this Act (other than this subsection and title IX) and the amendments made by this Act shall cease to have effect with respect to that country.

(b) Termination of USMCA

On the date on which the USMCA ceases to be in force with respect to the United States, this

Act and the amendments made by this Act (other than this subsection and title IX) shall cease to have effect.

(Pub. L. 116–113, title VI, § 621, Jan. 29, 2020, 134 Stat. 80.)

PART A—INTERAGENCY LABOR COMMITTEE FOR MONITORING AND ENFORCEMENT

§ 4641. Interagency Labor Committee for Monitoring and Enforcement

(a) Establishment

Not later than 90 days after January 29, 2020, the President shall establish an Interagency Labor Committee for Monitoring and Enforcement (in this subchapter referred to as the “Interagency Labor Committee”), to coordinate United States efforts with respect to each USMCA country—

(1) to monitor the implementation and maintenance of the labor obligations;

(2) to monitor the implementation and maintenance of Mexico’s labor reform; and

(3) to request enforcement actions with respect to a USMCA country that is not in compliance with such labor obligations.

(b) Membership

The Interagency Labor Committee shall—

(1) be co-chaired by the Trade Representative and the Secretary of Labor; and

(2) include representatives of such other Federal departments or agencies with relevant expertise as the President determines appropriate.

(c) Meetings

The Interagency Labor Committee shall meet at least once every 90 days during the 5-year period beginning on January 29, 2020, and at least once every 180 days thereafter for 5 years.
