“(7) crime data is a fundamental tool of law enforcement, but for decades the Bureau of Indian Affairs and the Department of Justice have not been able to coordinate or consistently report crime and prosecution rates in tribal communities.

“(1) to clarify the responsibilities of Federal, State, tribal, and local governments with respect to crimes committed in Indian country;

“(2) to increase coordination and communication among Federal, State, tribal, and local law enforcement agencies;

“(3) to empower tribal governments with the authority, resources, and information necessary to safely and effectively provide public safety in Indian country;

“(4) to reduce the prevalence of violent crime in Indian country and to combat sexual and domestic violence against American Indian and Alaska Native women;

“(5) to prevent drug trafficking and reduce rates of alcohol and drug addiction in Indian country; and
